

Easy, Quick, and Free/Inexpensive Things to Do With Your Team This Summer

The Soundtrack of the Summer

Create the ultimate summer playlist together! Start a shared "Summer Vibes" playlist on Spotify, and see where it takes you by the time Labor Day rolls around.

"One Weird Skill" Show & Tell

Everyone demos something they can do that no one knows about. (Juggle? Whistle opera? Fold a fitted sheet? Name all 50 of the state capitals?)

Dub You Challenge

One person silently acts out a scenario while another provides the dialogue...badly dubbed. Think: someone acting out "ordering at Starbucks" while the dubber makes it sound like a spy negotiation.

Describe Something Badly

Someone describes a movie or TV show as obtusely as possible for the others to guess. For example: "Hamlet, but with cats!" (The Lion King) or "Sick guy makes meth." (Breaking Bad)

Want to create an unforgettable experiences for your team?

Reach out to us at:
info@mysterytrip.co

The $10 Challenge

Head to a popular shopping area (outdoors), split the group into teams of two and choose a theme. Give them an hour to buy an item that best represents the theme and have teams present at lunch. The prize for the winning team are the items.